NICHOLLS TO READ ONCE MORE .- The large number of persons who have had the privilege of hearing this distinguished elo cutionist at Association Hall, will be glad of the announcement that at the request of a number of gentlemen he will read on Monday evening again, at Assembly Hall, The new and very tempting programme which will be found in our advertising columns, and the charitable object for which the reading will be given, will crowd the hall, and Mr. Nicholls never fails to amuse delight, and instruct.

THE KELLOGG OPERA SEASON. - The reper toire for the Kellogg opera season is pub lished in the Dispatch this morning. It will be read with pleasure by all who propose to take advantage of such a rare opportunity of enjoying fine opera music. No more attractive bill could have been presented-Monday, Martha; Tuesday, Faust; Wednesday, Fra Diavolo; Thursday, Mignon Friday, Il Trovatore; Saturday afternoon (matinée), The Bohemian Girl; and Saturday evening, Maritana. Miss Kellogg wil appear on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings, and on Saturday afternoon a the matinee. In the Bohemian Girl Miss Kellogg will take the character of Arline Mr. Seguin, Devilshoof; and Mr. Maas Thaddeus. - Mr. Castle has heretofore been Thaddeus in the opera, and his many triends will regret that it is deemed expedient to make the change. Mr. Hamilton is to supply Mr. Campbell's place as Count Arnheim. So much for the announcement.

Miss Kellogg, it is said, for she is not yet known to a Richmond andience, displays more natural earnestness and complete realization of the characters she assume than any operatic actress on the American stage. She is not only a beautiful singer, but is an artist of extraordinary merit. We will have something to say of Miss Kellogg hereafter.

The sale of reserved seats commences C. F. Johnston's music-store, No. 918 Main street, on Tuesday morning next, the 15th at 9 o'clock.
